

CALIFORNIA WRITERS CLUB
SPRING 2017 WRITER'S LUNCHEON

APRIL 29th, 2017

WHERE:	Friends Meeting House 727 Harrison Avenue, Claremont CA 91711
REGISTRATION:	11:30 – 12:00
LUNCH:	12:00 – 12:30
PRESENTATION:	12:30 – 2:00 KEYNOTE PRESENTER

Susan O'Connell

Memoirs of a Madame

After years of traveling the country portraying Denver madam Mattie Silks in her one person play "Memoirs of a Madame," Susan O'Connell shares her knowledge of the old west and its ladies of the evening. Told with taste and delicacy, these stories, facts and poems speak of a history that has been hushed, or spoken in whispers...until now.

Susan is an actress, writer and poet who is the great-great-granddaughter of Amelia Ann Earp, cousin to Wyatt himself. Years of research and interviews with people who settled this country has given Susan insight into the old west, and the lives of these soiled doves.

"Our Old West heroes may all be Men, but this fact I can attest, It was the ladies, good and bad, who tamed the men who tamed the West"

FIRST PAGES: 2:10 – 3:10

Discussion of First Pages of Work in Progress

The opening line of a book is supposed to hook the reader. If it is good, the reader will continue to read the entire first page and buy the book. Join us as we review and discuss the first pages of several manuscripts in progress. Lead by Jodi Rizzoto.

CWC MEMBERS: $ 10.00
NON MEMBERS: $ 20.00

Members can bring a Guest for free

For more information contact: judy.kohnen@gmail.com