Ovitt Family Library
215 E C St, Ontario, CA 91764

Elisabeth Anghel
“The Office of the First Lady”

Elisabeth Anghel is a retired librarian. Her career spans almost three decades of working in different capacities in academic libraries. In retirement, Elisabeth keeps active volunteering for Friends of Riverside Public Library, California Writers Club, Inland Empire Chapter and as a storyteller with Inland Valley Storytellers in Claremont.

The Office of the First Lady

The Office of the First Lady is an important part of the administration's role of the Executive Branch of the Government. The First Lady Office is located in the East Wing of the White House and is part of the Executive Office of the President.

The first part of the presentation will explore the history, duties, importance and impact the First Lady Office has during the time the President is in Executive Office.

Second part will present three First Ladies whose contributions had lasting impact in American life and culture.

This in-person meeting is open to all!
