

Inland Empire Branch Meeting California Writers Club

Saturday, May 25, 2024 at 10:10 am
Ovitt Family Library
215 E C St, Ontario, CA 91764

Jayce Carter
“The Art of Writing Romance”

Romance often ranks at the top of the most popular genre lists. Better yet, this occurs year after year, proving romance is here to stay. Even outside of genre romance, many best-selling books include relationships and love stories as central plot points and themes.

Have you ever wondered what makes one book a romance but not another? Have you been curious about how to write a romance and what readers are looking for? Or maybe you just want to add more romantic elements into your non-romance manuscript?

Whether you want to write genre romance or just add a little more romance into your current manuscript, this talk can help you understand what readers are looking for and how to apply it to your story. Be ready to talk all things literature and love as we discuss the Art of Writing Romance with Jayce Carter.

Jayce Carter is a romance author who specializes in steamy and reverse-harem stories. She has published over forty books and enjoys exploring stories where women discover power and agency in their own lives. As a life-long desert-dweller, she adores the heat despite her mild sun allergy, and bundles up the moment the temperature drops below seventy.

This in-person meeting is open to all!
