Saturday, June 22, 2024 at 10:10 am
Ovitt Family Library
215 E C St, Ontario, CA 91764

Mike Apodaca

“Do the Twist: How to create a great ending”

Mike Apodaca is an ordained minister with a master’s degree in theology who pastored a church for nine years. He is a retired public school educator who has taught from kindergarten to college. Mike is a speaker and a writer, and president of the High Desert branch of the California Writer’s Club. His past responsibilities for the club have included running Zoom meetings, serving on committees, building websites, and editing the club newsletter. Mike received the Jack London Award for his dedication to the HDCWC. Mike has written eight books (four self-published), and stories in anthologies (including two in the prestigious Literary Review), and newspaper articles. He is also a member of the On-Topic speaker’s bureau. He loves reading, writing, and talking with writers.

Do the Twist: How to create a great ending

Learn how to organize a story where the reader gets that mind-shifting realization at the end that the solution to everything was right in front of them, but they never even saw it.

This in-person meeting is open to all!
